Question Frames for Developing Higher-Level Questions

Directions: Choose a question frame from each question level in order to develop five questions based on your reading selection. Use these questions for review or to share in class for discussion.

Recall:
- What is ________________________?
- Define _________________________.
- Identify the _________________________.
- Who did ________________________?

Analysis:
- What is the main idea ________________________?
- List the main events of _________________________.
- What are the parts of a ________________________?
- What is the topic of ________________________?

Comparison:
- Compare the characters in ________________________ to the characters in _________________________.
- What is the difference between ________________________ and ________________________?

Inference:
- What do you think will happen next in the ________________________?
- What is the main conclusion from ________________________?
- Predict what ________________________ will do.
- What would happen if ________________________?

Evaluation:
- What is your opinion of ________________________?
- What is the best solution to the problem of ________________________?
- Evaluate the writing of ________________________.
- Defend your opinion about ________________________.